3.4.2. Awards and recognitions received for extension activities from government/ government recognized bodies.

All-CHTMSR, as an institution, has been actively involved in social extension activities, particularly in the field of hospitality education. The recognition received from OceanOwe Foundation, a government-recognized NGO, for the Excellence Contribution Award in 2023, is a significant achievement for All-CHTMSR.

The award signifies acknowledgment and appreciation for the institute's efforts and commitment to societal development, especially through initiatives like the blood donation camp conducted in association with Nair Hospital and Lions Club. This acknowledgment emphasizes the institution's dedication to inclusive education and social responsibility, aligning with the ethos of Anjuman-I-Islam's legacy of community service and educational excellence.

All-CHTMSR's core goal of nurturing highly skilled professionals aligns with a broader mission of fostering responsible citizens who prioritize social responsibility. The institution's continuous efforts to engage students in various social activities and its aspiration for more awards through social extension activities demonstrate a commitment to furthering societal impact and community development.

The institute's recognition not only showcases its achievements but also highlights the importance of social engagement and responsibility in the field of education. This award reinforces the institution's commitment to quality education, transparency, and its vision to become a world-class educational and social service organization.

Overall, the acknowledgment through the Excellence Contribution Award is a testament to All-CHTMSR's dedication to not just academic excellence but also to contributing positively to society, fulfilling the broader mission of social upliftment and inclusivity in education.
