PLAN OF ACTION

Anjuman – I – Islam's College of Hotel & Tourism Management Studies & Research is to foster and uphold governance to align with the core values outlined in Criteria 7 of NAAC.

The following is the blueprint of Action that provides a brief outline about the initiatives, measures and steps to fulfil the aspects specified in this criterion:

1. Gender Equity

- Organize workshops, seminars, and campaigns on gender sensitization.
- Implement capacity-building programs to promote leadership among women faculty, staff, and students.

2. Environmental Sustainability

- Augment the usage of renewable energy on campus through careful use and energy-efficient infrastructure.
- Emphasise the purchases of certified LED equipment.
- Retain the green cover and undertake annual tree and sapling plantation drives.
- Initiating steps for minimal energy usage and preventing wastage through leaks and negligence.
- Continue steps to conserve the water and install water conservation mechanics.
- Continue to retain the green cover at the institution
- Continue to organize annual Beach Clean-up drives.

3. Code Of Conduct

- Emphasise and monitor the adherence to the Institutional Code of Conduct
- Uphold the student's rules & regulatory framework.

4. Incentivization

- The institute looks forward to annually organizing a Valedictory for recognizing and motivating it's academically inclined students by awarding them annually.

5. Human Values

- Organize community outreach programs, social welfare initiatives, and other initiatives to promote societal engagement and instill a sense of social responsibility among students.
- Organize the annual FDPs on the topic of national importance.
- Organize community cleaning drives.

6. Implementation of Best Practices

- Minimise food wastage by serving manageable portion sizes.
- Keep organizing the Annual Nutritional diet workshops.
- Regularly organize the awareness drives via different means and mediums.
